Lauded as an up-and-coming superstar, Stefan Jackiw makes his first appearance with the Columbus Symphony, performing Brahms' Violin Concerto, the perfect vehicle to display the beauty and range of his talents. Conducted by CSO Music Director Rossen Milanov, this uplifting concert also includes "Banner" by Jessie

Montgomery, infused with multi-cultural nuances, and Dvořák's Symphony No. 8, full of life, melodic beauty, and optimism.

Prelude - Patrons are invited to join WOSU-FM Classical 101's Christopher Purdy for a 30-minute, pre-concert discussion.
