A Message from our Honoree Gay Su Pinnell

As we embark on new musical horizons with a commitment to artistic excellence and a community-minded spirit, inspiration unveils itself in bold, exciting, and compelling efforts that broaden the Symphony's impact in central Ohio including plans to elevate and expand an already unique education initiative.

I want to personally invite you to join us for Inspiration Unveiled on June 7, 2025 at OhioHealth. The black-tie gala kicks off with cocktails on the Riverside Patio, followed by dinner prepared by our friends at Cameron Mitchell Premier Events, virtuosic performances by CSO principal musicians, program including a presentation of this season's transcendent Mahler 2 concert, and a live auction. The evening closes out with the Wine Down Afterparty on the Pavilion.

Thank you for being a champion of music and patron of the arts.

A Message from our Event Co-Chairs • Amy Shore & Rosa Ailabouni

Take a closer look and you'll see the Columbus Symphony as a catalyst of transformation and inspiration. Our musicians' passion is on full display all season long, from the enchanting Ohio Theatre to the vibrant Columbus Commons, in local schools, and throughout our region. Together, they share their unique talents to inspire and build a strong community through music.

Every year, dedicated music lovers, community innovators, and business leaders from across Columbus come together at our annual Gala to celebrate our extraordinary orchestra and the phenomenal supporters, like Gay Su Pinnell, who make it all possible. As a leading orchestra in the nation, the Columbus Symphony continues to produce timeless art that transcends generations.

Our commitment to community shines through in our programs: offering free Masterworks admission to over 2,500 kids aged 6-16, serving over 10,000 families through the CSO Cares programs in partnership with local human service organizations, and bringing music to new audiences and communities as far as Appalachian towns in southeastern Ohio.

Your support unveils the inspiration that allows the Columbus Symphony to shape the life and longevity of symphonic music. Together, we make a lasting impact, creating memories and connections that will resonate for years to come.

Thank you for your support!
